

LEXICON PARTNERS

For immediate release
January 2005

Lexicon Partners announces awards received in 2005

Lexicon Partners, the independent corporate finance advisory firm specialising the financial services and utilities sectors, is delighted to announce that it has received a number of industry awards. At the 2005 Acquisition Monthly Awards, Lexicon Partners was voted as "Independent Corporate Finance House of the Year" and also received a second award for its advisory role on the flotation of Admiral Insurance, which was voted "Private Equity Exit of the Year". In addition, in December 2004, Lexicon Partners was voted as "European Boutique of the Year" in the Financial News awards for excellence in investment banking.